Mr. Scott thoroughly enjoyed his students as evidenced by his participation as an advisor for the Foreign Student Program, Hi-Y and other extracurricular activities.

Mr. Scott was married to Gladys Scott for more than 50 years. The Scotts believed in self-sufficiency. Gerald and his family built a summer cabin in northern Wisconsin, built their house on Crawford Street, helped build one son's house outside of Madison, and built a Cascade sailboat (The Release) that the family sailed for several years on Lake Michigan and Green Bay. In retirement, the Scotts participated in numerous elderhostels in the United States and Canada and traveled to Europe. Gerald had a true love of life and stayed active by gardening, including his prized dahlias and raspberries. The Scott House at the International Crane Foundation is named after this generous couple who prepared countless dinners for visiting dignitaries.

Bill was born Dec. 27, 1927 in Baraboo,. After graduating high school, Bill worked for the Chicago and Northwestern Railroad from 1945 to 1955. He took a leave of absence to serve his country in the United States Army during World War II from 1946 to 1947. After working with the railroad, he began employment with Cessna Aviation in Chicago until moving to Baraboo in 1960. Bill then became owner-operator of Kunzelman's Ice Cream Parlor on the square, as a third generation owner.

Other careers included delivering milk for Valley Gold Dairy, laundry delivery for Badger Laundry and Dry Cleaning, working at Leahy American Motor of Baraboo, the Badger Army Ordnance Works as a heavy equipment operator for over 12 years, and worked in security and in the purchasing department for St. Clare Hospital for over 18 years. In addition, his most cherished job was as school bus driver for over 22 years, where he became known as "Mr. Bill" by all of his kids.

Some of his hobbies included feeding the birds and squirrels, tending to his yard, anything related to old cars, traveling in his recreational vehicle down South or out West, and once traveling wasn't an option, Bill loved to tape TV shows and movies to share with his family.
